Local residents.

I accept this nomination as a community representative on the committee.

My Personal Statement:

I am the current Chair of CCMAC and have been an elected member since 2015. Over that time I have played a key role with others in developing the CCMAC website; driving open communication for CCMAC through Twitter and writing articles for the website; reaching out to groups on the Common who are under-represented on CCMAC, such as sporting groups; and starting the process for achieving Green Flag status for the Common.

If elected again, my key focus will be to complete the process for achieving Green Flag status which in turn will put us on course for applying for financial grants to further improve the Common while preserving its unique nature. The Common belongs to everyone and we need to recognise the need to strike a balance between all users, including local residents. Working together for a thriving Common, today and for future generations.
